

Playwrights Atlantic Resource Centre

Playwriting Membership Annual Fee $35

Open to playwrights in and from all four Atlantic Provinces

A playwriting membership entitles you to:

Receive weekly e-bulletins

Receive the Annual Report

Receive discounts on ticket prices at many of the Region's theatres

Have your scripts listed in the current catalogue – on line and in hard copy

Have your news reported in the Annual Report

Receive support through the PARC office as a resource, information and referral service

Have contact with the office, courtesy of the toll free phone number

Eligibility to submit work for consideration in any and all PARC programs and events at no cost, such as:

- The Playwrights Colony (one submission per year)*

- The Festival Showcase of New Work (one submission per year)*

- Home Delivery (one session per year)*

- Kitchen Table Readings (one per year)*

- Playwrights in Performance Cabarets

- New Play Reading Series*

- Playwrights' Development Centres National Network Exchanges and Activities*

(for more than one submission per year, a fee is charged)

Reduced prices on any PARC publications and Professional Development Workshops

Eligibility to be considered for various teaching/workshop leading programs

Eligibility to vote at any and all meetings of the organization

Please Note: PARC members are required to give credit to PARC for any contribution PARC has made to the development of their work through any of our programs, whenever the opportunity arises (ie: programs, publicity, publications, etc.) Members are urged to promote PARC by mentioning in their bios that they are members of PARC.